

November 2018

Board of Directors

Laurie Nanni
President

Wally Kornow
Vice President

Bill Chase
Secretary

Debbie Martin
Treasurer

Darlene Warner
Susan Sanford
Jamie Lindsley

Refreshment List

November: Pinky
December:
Christmas Party

Oakfield Historical Society

PO Box 74, Oakfield, New York 14125

www.oakfieldhistory.org

Our next meeting is on WEDNESDAY, November 7, 2018 please note the day change as Tuesday the building will be in use for voting. Our board meeting is at 6:00. At 7:00, we are excited to have Perry Ground, a Native American Storyteller and Cultural Educator. He will be presenting, The True Thanksgiving Story. All are welcome, young and old. You won't want to miss this.

We will once again host the OACS Art Show on Saturday, December 1, 2018. We will open at 11:00 come vote for your favorite artist. We will also be an ornament stop for the Oakfield Betterment Committee. We will be there from 11:00 until 2:00.

All books will be available for any Christmas shopping.

A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT.....

The book is here! This is what Dar had to say..... I am totally enthused about this book, to say the least. Where ever possible I asked family members to write their own family stories this resulted in fantastic histories about the businesses in Oakfield in the 1950's, 60's and 70's, that only they could tell. There are 65 stories including; hardware stores, grocery and dry goods stores, gas stations, car dealerships, dairy's, pharmacy, funeral home, furniture stores flower shop, plumbers, laundromats, pizza shops, you name it we had it all right here.

Find out how Al Hilchey got the hardware, what living at the Arnold House was like, that the bowling alley once had bleachers, why was Cuzzy's called the Elland Dairy Bar?, who had the first self made car wash? Interesting ways some business owners were paid, when the shoemakers shop was demolished what happened to the cobblestone? Which grocer taught a young boy about food and self respect? Who was a former cowboy and could do some soft shoe?

The book is $20.00 and $6.70 to ship.

