Our next meeting is on Tuesday, October 2, 2018.
THERE WILL BE NO BOARD MEETING. At 7:00 our friend, Jim Ferris is a re enactor and will be in full costume and will present Early American Survival.

Pioneers had to face so many hardships. Jim will do a show and tell program, in his bag he will have all the items he would need to survive in the elements for days in the 1700's, there were no hotels or inns here back then.

This is a FANTASTIC program especially for children.

A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT.....

Well the temperatures are starting to cool down and you can see a few leaves starting to turn here and there. We have a busy October, we are super excited to host the 7th graders from OACS at a private tour. These tours are some of our FAVORITES!!!

Darlene is working diligently on her new book for this fall. The tentative title is Our Carefree Years 50's & 70's. I have seen some of the stories and they are awesome. I promise you are going to love this book.

As the cool weather starts we start thinking of the holidays. We have many different books that make awesome gifts for those hard to buy for people. If you are in need of a book please call me at 585-259-4145 or you can always get them at the museum.

If you have any free time, Sue can use some help at the museum on Sundays, please give her a call.

Happy fall!!!!!!

Laurie Nanni
